

Let's play a game of 'Put your hand up
if...'

Put your hand up if...

- you have brown hair.
- wear glasses.
- have a brother or sister.
- like football.
- can speak another language.
- you like paddling in the sea.
- born in this country.
- know what you want to be when you're older.

All these things help make up your identity.

What else might make up your personal identity?

- Groups or clubs that you belong to - mosque, church, football team...
- What your interests or talents are - drama, dance, running ...
- What things are important to you
- What your hopes are for the future
- Which people are important to you
- Your religion
- The languages that you speak
- Your country of origin

We have talked about personal values, but can a country have values?

We all live in Britain,
what do you think
British values are?

The British Isles

The British Isles

We all live in Britain,
what do you think
British values are?

We are going to be learning about
British values.

- Democracy
- The rule of law
- Individual liberty
- Mutual respect
- Tolerance of those of
different faiths and beliefs

These are ideas we will be learning about in class and in assemblies.

We are going to be learning about
British values.

- Democracy

Britain is a democracy - this means that the people in Britain vote for the people who make the laws and decide how the country is run. If we didn't have a democracy, just one person might be able to make all the laws and that would not be fair.

We are going to be learning about
British values.

- The rule of the law

In Britain we have a police force who make sure people do not do the wrong thing and break the law - this means that we should be safe.

We are going to be learning about
British values.

- Individual Liberty

In Britain, as long as we do not break the law, we can live as we choose to and have our own opinions about things.

We are going to be learning about
British values.

- Mutual Respect

We might not always agree with other people, but we try to show respect for their thoughts and feelings.

We can give respect to others and we can expect other people to show us respect.

We are going to be learning about
British values.

- Tolerance of those of
different faiths and
beliefs

In Britain we accept that other people might have different beliefs than ours and they may believe in different religions.

We are going to be learning about
British values.

- Tolerance of those of
different faiths and
beliefs

Which religions do the children of Girlington Primary School belong to?

We are going to be learning about
British values.
